

CHINESE BUTCHERS
HAVE BEEN JAILEDMISSIONARY KILLERS BEING SEVERELY PUNISHED.

So Far One Hundred and Thirty Persons Have Been Apprehended But as Yet None of Them Have Been Sentenced—Emperor William's Course Condemned—Cable News.

Hong Kong, Sept. 6.—The leaders of the riots in which the missionaries were killed, have been arrested and so far one hundred and thirty persons have been apprehended. Twenty-three have been convicted but as yet none have been sentenced.

Cardiff, Wales, Sept. 6.—The Trade Union Congress passed a resolution protesting against Emperor William's interference with the liberty of the press.

New York, Sept. 6.—Atrocities by the Spaniards, as revolting as those committed by the Japanese at Port Arthur, have been reported to the Cuban revolutionary party in New York. Enrique Trujillo, editor of El Porvenir, received a letter from Juan Maspons Franco, chief of staff under General Maximiliano Gomez, the commander-in-chief of the insurgent army. It is dated "Headquarters, in the field, Aug. 3," and sends details of the capture and recapture of the city of Baire and the massacre of thirty-seven inoffensive Cubans, mostly women and children, by the Spaniards under Commander Garrido.

On Tuesday morning, according to Colonel Franco's letter, a company of insurgents under Jose Rabi surprised the Spanish garrison in the fortress commanding the city of Baire, killed more than seventy men and took fifty-six prisoners. They captured a large quantity of arms and persuaded the prisoners to enlist in the insurgent ranks.

Later three companies of Spanish troops under Commander Garrido came up, and after a short but sharp resistance the Cubans fled, leaving the fortress again in the hands of the Spaniards. Soon after the fort had been re-garrisoned with Spaniards one of the companies broke loose and began to pillage the city. Commander Garrido himself, Col. Franco says, led the uniformed rioters. The Spaniards were wild for the spilling of blood. Every human creature who came in their path was ruthlessly slain. Within five minutes the streets of Baire were deserted by the panic-stricken natives, but the Spaniards followed them into their houses and killed them in their own rooms.

"Age, sex and condition were wholly disregarded by these liveried butchers," says Col. Franco. "Old and young women, children, even infants, were slaughtered. Shocking indignities were offered to the unfortunate victims before and after death. The Spanish soldiers stamped on the bodies of those whom they had slain, and ground their heels into the faces of many who were still living."

"Senorita Delores Madera, a beautiful girl of 18, betrothed to one of Capt. Rabi's lieutenants, was seized on the street, cruelly beaten, repeatedly stabbed with bayonets and brutally insulted. One of Garrido's captains commanded the girl to renounce her Cuban sweetheart and swear loyalty to the Spanish government. She scornfully refused, whereupon the captain struck her across the face with his sword, inflicting a terrible gash. With blood streaming down her face she taunted the Spaniards with their cowardice. Thereupon the maddened soldiers seized her, bound her hand and foot, threw a noose around her neck and hanged her to a tree. The torture of Senorita Madera was prolonged as much as possible. While she was still alive, but no longer conscious, her body was riddled with bullets."

ATTACK A RICH CONVOY.

Cuban Insurgents Forced to Retreat from a Bold Attack.

Havana, Sept. 6.—Official dispatches state that a train conveying 90,000 rations, 120,000 cartridges, $60,000 in money and a large quantity of merchandise to Cauto was attacked by a formidable band of insurgents near Puerto creek. Gen. Gasco, who was guarding the train to Cauto, made a determined stand. He was assisted by a gunboat, with a metralleuse, directing a hot fire upon the attacking party. They were obliged to retreat. The insurgents lost twenty killed and thirty of their number were wounded. On the other side one lieutenant of the military guard, one merchant and two volunteers were killed and five soldiers. Two machinists and one marine officer were wounded.

According to an official report a detachment of twenty soldiers from Fort Camp Echuela was attacked by a force of 300 insurgents. The soldiers, so overwhelmingly outnumbered, made a heroic resistance. Ten of their number were killed, and two captains, one sergeant, one corporal and five private soldiers were wounded. The arrival of reinforcements for the survivors compelled the insurgents to retreat. The latter left seven killed, but carried their wounded away with them.

Spanish Minister of Colonies Resigns.

Madrid, Sept. 6.—The Dia announces that Senor Castellanos, minister for the colonies, has resigned.

SENSATION IN FRAKER'S CASE.

Kansas Paper Makes Charges Against The Insurance Companies.

Topeka, Kas., Sept. 6.—The Kansas Independent, a Populist paper, published here, prints a sensational letter from a prominent citizen of Duluth, who charges that the recent arrest of Dr. Fraker is a conspiracy between the insurance companies and the chief of police of Topeka to secure the money now in trust for Fraker's heirs. Editor Pack, of the Independent, refuses to divulge the name of his correspondent, but says he is a prominent citizen and that if the insurance companies demand it his name will be given.

The Duluth man charges that the companies arranged with a crazy hermit living in the woods of Minnesota to maintain that he is Dr. Fraker. He says the man arrested as Fraker is well known as a half-witted man who has been living in the wilds of Minnesota two years and that he calls himself the "king of the forest." He has always gone heavily armed, and that the settlers feared that he would murder them. The Duluth man says the insurance companies can afford to pay this double of Dr. Fraker's a good sum to aid in the conspiracy until the money in the trustee's hands shall have been returned to them. Then the companies would discover that they could not prosecute Dr. Fraker criminally and turn him loose.

President Davis, of the Kansas Mutual, said that the insurance companies certainly had Dr. Fraker under arrest, as many of his old friends and acquaintances had identified him. He denied that they had, as charged by the Duluth man, entered into a conspiracy to get hold of the money. He expressed some doubt, however, about being able to convict Dr. Fraker on the charge of conspiracy.

Recognized as Fraker.

Richmond, Mo., Sept. 6.—Dr. Fraker, who is in jail here on the charge of attempting to defraud insurance companies, was recognized yesterday by a score of people. The recognition was mutual, Dr. Fraker calling several by name and conversing with them. The information leading to the arrest and incarceration of Dr. Fraker has been filed before Justice McCurston, in this city. There are five counts in the information, the aggregate penalty being thirty-three years in the penitentiary.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

Drunk Rolling Mill Employee at York, Pa., on a Rampage.

York, Pa., Sept. 6.—William Beaverson, aged 35 years, an employee of the York Rolling Mills, shot and instantly killed his wife, Ida, aged 30 years. He fired a bullet into his head, dying a few moments later. Beaverson was a heavy drinker, and when in his cups accused his wife of infidelity. Tiring of his treatment, she left her home last Saturday and went to the house of Mrs. John Hopkins, in Pleasantville. Beaverson followed her, and it is said, discovered her with another man on Sunday. Yesterday he went to Mrs. Hopkins' house and gained admission upon promising not to do his wife any injury. The moment she confronted him, however, he drew a revolver and fired.

Tin Mills Must Close.

Warren, Ohio, Sept. 6.—Charles Bray, general manager of the Beaver Tin-Plate company, of Lisbon, Ohio, has expressed the opinion that he deemed no other course possible for the tin mills in this county than to shut down, on account of their inability to produce tin sheets against foreign competition. The fact that steel billets have advanced $11 a ton, and there being a strong probability of another advance within a week, will render further operation of the tin mills unprofitable under existing legislation.

Our Exports to Germany.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The Department of Agriculture has received from its agent at Berlin a statement of the imports of agricultural and other products of Germany. It shows that during the first six months of 1895 the following percentage of the total imports of the German Empire of the articles specified were obtained from the United States: Cotton, 80 per cent; wheat, 15; maize, 55; grass and timothy seed, 16; dressed beef, 59; oil cake, 33; lard lard, 93.

Sumner Denies Carelessness.

New York, Sept. 6.—The members of the naval court-martial, ordered to try the charges against Capt. G. W. Sumner, in reference to the injuries sustained by the United States cruiser Columbia while being docked in Southampton two months ago, reassembled yesterday. Capt. Sumner denied the charges of neglect. The statement as to his plea is an error. He has not pleaded guilty to the charges preferred.

Want American Property.

Washington, Sept. 6.—English investors are said to be longing for American gold mines. Their agents and experts are looking into the merits of nearly a hundred properties in the mountain states, their field of inquiry extending over into Mexico. The negotiations are proceeding slowly, but the drift is certainly this way, and in the course of a few months from $75,000,000 to $100,000,000 of British gold is reasonably certain to be transferred to American pockets in exchange for the titles to mining properties.

FOX RIVER MEETING TO PLAN NEW LAWSWATER POWER MEN ADDRESS
THE GOVERNOR.

Other Meetings of The Day—Iowa State Fair Opens—Omaha Has a Jubilee Day—Chicago Sound Money Democrats Gather to Reorganize Their Party—Peach Festival.

Appleton, Wis., Sept. 6.—A conference in the interest of Fox River Valley is being held here today by business men, congressmen and Gov. Upham. The object is to map out a course of legislation that will lead to a general resumption of making operation in Fox river valley.

Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 6.—The Iowa State Fair opened today and promises to be one of the most successful of any yet held. The exhibit of cattle, horses, hogs, sheep and poultry both in number and quality exceeds all previous records.

New Bedford, Mass., Sept. 6.—The annual demonstration of the lodges, councils, and patriarchies of the New England states of the Grand United Order of Odd Fellows, took place here today. The feature of the day was the grand parade at noon.

Omaha, Neb., Sept. 6.—This is "Omaha's jubilee day," the occasion being the opening of the finest state fair grounds in the northwest. The exercises opened at 9:30 with music, followed by the presentation of the grounds and buildings by President Lindley of the Omaha Fair and Speed association to the citizens of Omaha, Nebraska. After the final ceremonies there were bicycle races, military drills and horse races.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 6.—The sound money democrats of Chicago are in session today in an attempt to reorganize the party.

Grand Junction, Col., Sept. 5.—This is Peach day in Grand Junction. The event was organized by citizens who wished to show the world the kind of peaches that can be raised in Colorado. The display is very fine.

THE CZAR IN DANGER.

Activity of the Nihilists Makes Constant Care Necessary.

Berlin, Sept. 6.—The Lokal Anzeiger's correspondent at St. Petersburg confirms the statement recently published that in consequence of the activity of the nihilists it has been found necessary to guard the czar's every step as carefully as the movements of his father, Alexander III., were guarded by the police at the most perilous periods of his reign. The czar, whose accouchment is expected in October, is suffering from extreme nervousness in consequence of the danger threatening the czar.

Employment for 20,000 Men.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—The window-glass manufacturers of Pittsburg and vicinity met yesterday and formed a selling agency. It is a combination of interests, and will be known as the Pittsburg Window Glass Company. The capital stock is $25,000,000, and 1,400 pots are represented in the pool. There will be no change in the ownership of the plants. Glass will be sold direct to jobbers and no business will be done with glass brokers. All the Eastern factories will be included. A new price list will be announced Tuesday. The manufacturers say the combine was forced by the demands of the workers' unions. Twenty thousand men will be given employment.

Hard Work to Get a Jury.

Danville, Ind., Sept. 6.—Rev. William E. Hinshaw, the alleged wife-murderer, was brought into court at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The selection of the jury was resumed by the defense. It was found the special venire of fifty jurors had been exhausted, and court adjourned at 11 o'clock in order to secure another venire. Deputy sheriffs were at once started out, and when court reconvened at 2 o'clock another effort was made, but at 2:30 a recess was again taken, the special veniremen who had arrived having all been excused for various reasons. An hour later the court again rapped for order, but within thirty minutes no one answered to the call for jurors, and Judge Hadley adjourned the second day of the trial without securing a jury.

Record in Waller Case.

Washington, Sept. 6.—The State department has been advised that the record in the Waller court martial, for which the French authorities found it necessary to send to Madagascar, is expected to reach Aden, on the Red Sea, about September 12. It is expected to be at least a month before the department can be in full possession of all the facts in the case. In all probability no further steps will be taken by the department in this matter until this examination shall be made. It is believed that the irritation of the French authorities at Tamatave was really aroused by the investigation into this case, rather than by his failure to salute the French flag.

Nebraska Leases H-7 Convicts.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—Ex-Warden Beemer has leased the convict labor of the state prisoners. He will receive 40 cents per day from the state for each prisoner, and account to the state for all profits on labor in excess of $3,000 per annum.

AGED MAN SUICIDES
BEFORE THE MIRROR

LUDWIGSENGLAUB'S SPECTACULAR MEANS OF DEATH.

Fired a Ball Into His Brain While Standing in Front of a Looking Glass at the Home of a Friend and Died Instantly—Interesting State Specials.

Milwaukee, Sept. 6.—Ludwig Senglaub, one of the most prominent residents suicided at the house of a friend this morning by shooting himself through the temple while in front of a large mirror. He was a game warden under the Peck administration and was seventy-six years old.

Depositors Will Lose Nothing.

Kenosha, Wis., Sept. 6.—Assignee Hale made a statement yesterday regarding the affairs of the Dan Head & Co. bank, in which he says the liabilities of the bank are approximately $175,000 and the assets $200,000. He says the stockholders will make good all the deficiencies. The bank was opened during regular banking hours yesterday for the first time for the collection of debts due the institution.

NEW JERSEY FOREST FIRES.

Sudden Shift of the Wind Makes Danger Greater.

May's Landing, N. J., Sept. 6.—A sudden shift of the wind at 8 o'clock yesterday morning changed the course of the forest fires that are raging above this place, and sent fire directly toward the north section of the town. Seven miles of timber has been destroyed. While the dry weather continues and high winds prevail there is little chance of putting the fire out, but the danger to this place is now believed to be over.

Vineland, N. J., Sept. 6.—This place is almost entirely surrounded by the forest fires, and is in great danger.

Tariff Reform and "Sound Money."

Lancaster, Pa., Sept. 6.—At the seventh annual general assembly of the Democratic societies of Pennsylvania, held in this city yesterday, Chauncey F. Black, of New York, was unanimously re-elected president for the ensuing year, as was also Major John D. Worman, of Philadelphia, as secretary.

The convention adopted resolutions declaring that the late depression was due to the Sherman silver law and the McKinley tariff law, and that the industries had been revived by the Wilson bill; and reaffirming the platforms of the last national and state Democratic conventions, especially in favor of tariff reform and "sound money."

Was After Eleven Banks.

Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 6.—After the arrest of Robert Ritson of this city the police think they have unearthed a gigantic system of swindling by bogus drafts printed in the names of eleven different national banks and drawn to the correspondents of those banks in Louisville, Boston, Milwaukee, Indianapolis and Chicago and on five banks in New York city. Ritson was held in bail to answer a charge of conspiracy with unknown persons by means of bogus checks. He was arrested while getting extensive printing of draft blanks done.

More Christians Killed in China.

Lyons, France, Sept. 6.—The newspaper Missions Catholiques publishes a statement that at the beginning of July the mission and orphanage at Vouney, China, were attacked by natives and burned. In the riot several Christians were killed.

THE ODDS ARE ON THE DEFENDER.

New York, Sept. 6.—The forecast is for good weather for the yacht race tomorrow. The betting is light with odds on the Defender.

ANOTHER BOMB FOR ROTHSCHILD

Man Threw an Unlighted Infernal Machine Into the Bank.

Paris, Sept. 6.—M. Rothschild's banking house in this city was the scene yesterday of another nihilistic attempt. At 3:20 o'clock a man entered the bank from the Rue La Fayette. In the vestibule a detective who was on guard there saw the stranger trying to light with a cigarette the fuse of a bomb which he carried. The ashes of the cigarette prevented the ready ignition of the fuse, and the man, seeing that he was observed, threw the bomb upon the carpeted floor. The weapon did not explode, and the man was arrested. When he was taken to the police office he boldly avowed himself an anarchist. He made a desperate attempt to use a razor before he was overpowered by the detective and a policeman who came to the latter's assistance.

Police officials believe, from the appearance of the culprit, that he is a brother of Pawels, who perpetrated the Madeleine outrage. He is about 33 years of age, of medium height, beetle-browed, wears a short mustache, has a sullen stare, and is pale. He was dressed in dark clothes and wore a shirt with red stripes. The bomb was made of a half-pound cocoa tin, tied with a string and bound about with wire. A round hole a quarter of an inch in size was in the side of the box, and from this fell a whitish powder.

The recent explosive letter received at De Rothschild's bank, and which cost Baron Alphonse de Rothschild's confidential clerk an eye, the man said, was only a hoax, the attempt being expected to have a salutary effect. The man told the commissary he made the bomb himself. He expressed regret that he had not taken enough precautions to insure an explosion. He had tried to light the fuse with a cigarette, but the ashes upon the latter interfered. The arrival of the detective had compelled him to throw the bomb hastily, and by that act he had not expected to explode it. He said that the bomb contained chloride of potassium. He will be examined in detail to-day.

The news of the outrage spread rapidly in Paris, and many fear that it portends a renewal of an active anarchist campaign.

THE GOLD RESERVE.

First Break Below the $100,000,000 Mark Since June 25.

New York, Sept. 6.—The treasury's gold reserve, as reported from Washington yesterday at $99,127,567, shows the first break below the $100,000,000 mark since June 25. Its lowest point was $41,340,181 February 13. It first exceeded the limit after the syndicate contract was made June 26, when it touched $100,630,357. The reserve reached its highest point, $107,571,230, this year July 10. Of course, the daily treasury statement reflects conditions which prevailed two days ago, so actually the reserve, owing to the week's deposit of syndicate gold, is now above the $100,000,000 limit, yesterday's figures really applying to the state of the treasury Tuesday.

Will Ask for an Advance.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 6.—The unskilled glasshouse workers met yesterday and decided to strike on Tuesday next for an advance of 12 1-2 per cent. District Assembly No. 12 represents 3,000 workers, and should the manufacturers allow a strike work will stop in a large number of factories.

Azote Breaks Her Record.

Galesburg, Ill., Sept. 6.—Yesterday was another record-breaking day for the Galesburg track, and the great Azote was the one to lower his own mark of 2:05 1-2, made at Fleetwood a few days ago, and also to trot the fastest mile trotted in 1895. Not only this, it is the fastest mile ever trotted by a gelding.

G. A. R. Veterans Invited to Atlanta.

Rockford, Ill., Sept. 6.—Commander-in-Chief Lawler has received an invitation from the G. A. R. to attend the cotton states international exposition at Atlanta the 21st inst. Blue and Gray day. It came too late to promulgate from headquarters, yet he is anxious that the comrades should know that they are invited to be present and mingle with those who wore the gray from 1861 to 1865 and he trusts that a large number will be there.

MONTANA IS ROCKED
BY AN EARTHQUAKEHELENA AND BUTTE ARE SHAKEN UP.

At the Former City the People Were Panic-Stricken and Fled Into The Streets For Safety—Shock Experienced at the Latter Place Less Severe.

Butte, Mont., Sept. 6.—A slight earthquake shock was felt here last night. The greatest force was not felt until after midnight, and great excitement resulted.

Helena, Mont., Sept. 6.—A severe earthquake shock was felt here last night, and the frightened people rushed into the street for safety, although no serious damage was done.

TRYING TO HIDE FRAUD.

Warrant Book Stolen at Beatrice, Neb., Under Suspicious Circumstances.

Beatrice, Neb., Sept. 6.—Some little excitement has been caused here by the discovery that what is known as the City Fire Department warrant book had mysteriously disappeared from the city hall. Since the arrest of Clerk Phillips and Commissioner Hawkins, a close guard has been kept on the city's books and records, a policeman sleeping in the office each night, and if the book in question has been stolen it is the work of some one who has access to the office during the day. The fact that there has been a suspicion that there was fraud in connection with the purchase of 1,000 feet of hose recently made, and the warrants in payment therefor being from the lost books, gives the whole matter a rather suspicious appearance.

Decision Is Against Sugar Men.

Washington, Sept. 6.—Comptroller Bowler, of the treasury, yesterday decided the law appropriating $5,250,000 to the American sugar-growers to be unconstitutional. The decision had been anticipated for some time and created no surprise. The case in hand was that of the Oxnard Beet Sugar Company, of Nebraska, which had a claim of several thousand dollars under the bounty appropriation. Arguments were made in the case several weeks ago. Senators Caffery and Blanchard, of Louisiana, and ex-Senator Manderson of Nebraska, appearing as counsel.

Big Fire at Carrollton, Ky.

Carrollton, Ky., Sept. 6.—A disastrous fire, which started here in the general merchandise stores of M. & M. Dinkel-spiel, at 12:30 o'clock yesterday, destroyed six business buildings before it was gotten under control. The Dinkelspiels occupied three buildings. The buildings occupied by Brownski & Son, druggists; J. H. Kohlman, shoe merchant, and C. D. Salyer, stoves, were also totally destroyed. The loss on this property is fully $65,000. Fifteen other persons and firms were damaged more or less by the fire, bringing the total loss to nearly $75,000, partly insured.

Nebraska Gold Democrats.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—When State Chairman Euclid Martin of Omaha called the state convention of administration or gold Democrats to order yesterday 631 delegates greeted him with applause. The following nominations were made: Supreme judge, T. G. Mahoney; regents for state university, W. H. Ashby and John Ames. After speeches of acceptance the convention adjourned until evening, when Congressman M. D. Harter of Ohio was introduced. He made a speech commending the financial policy of the administration.

Federal Troops at Chickamauga.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Sept. 6.—The entire force of troops from the regular army, ordered by the secretary of war to proceed to Chattanooga and establish a model military camp on Chickamauga battlefield, with the exception of two batteries of artillery from Jackson barracks, New Orleans, has arrived. They number 900 men.

Forty Deaths from Cholera a Day.

London, Sept. 6.—The Vienna correspondent of the Daily News says that cholera is raging at Broussa and that forty deaths occur from the disease there daily. Broussa is a city of Asia Minor, about fifty-seven miles southeast of Constantinople.

Escapes After Serving Forty Years.

Columbus, O., Sept. 6.—George Blackburn, one of the best known criminals in Ohio, and who has been in the penitentiary almost continuously since 1853, escaped from the penitentiary yesterday about 3:30 o'clock. His prison suit was found on the bank of the Scioto river, among the weeds. He was a "trusty."

Investigating Springfield Accident.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 6.—The inquest touching the death of the men who were killed by the falling tower at the state fair grounds Wednesday was not held yesterday owing to the absence of some of the witnesses. The people generally condemn the contractor, who was putting up the building.

Another Building Falls.

Charlevoix, Mich., Sept. 6.—The large seed warehouse of D. M. Ferry & Co., located here, collapsed yesterday. Five employees had just left the building, as had also several ladies visiting the establishment. The loss will not be less than $15,000.

PUT INTO CLASS B FOR GETTING PAY

MILWAUKEE RIDERS BEING TRANSFERRED.

Bingenheimer Notified and Others Expect Notices—Crocker, Sanger, Roth and Zerbe Sure to Be Made Class B Men With Bingenheimer in a Few Days—Class A Benefited.

The order expected during the Janesville meet, transferring one or more of the Milwaukee class A riders to class B, was issued yesterday, and it was for Bingenheimer of the Andrae tandem team. The order was received by Bingenheimer yesterday, and it goes into effect at once. An order transferring Milwaukee men was booked for several days ago, and it was by no means a surprise. Bingenheimer, however, was at first inclined to think that some one had played a joke on him by getting hold of a printed order such as is issued by the racing board of the L. A. W. and filling it out. "I don't quite know what to make of the order," said he a few minutes after receiving the notice, "as I have received no notice that I was under consideration. The usual proceeding has been for the racing board to notify men that they were thought to be subjects for transfers, and to ask them to submit evidence and reasons why they should not be transferred. I received no communication whatever from the racing board relative to my standing, and, while I rather expected to be put into class B along with other local riders, I wished for a chance to advance reasons why I should remain in class A."

At Stevens Point Yesterday. It was expected in cycling circles that others would be transferred before Bingenheimer was reached, the ones referred to being H. Crocker, W. C. Sanger, H. A. Zerbe, and E. Koth, with some chance for John Reitzner and William Howie being among them. Walter Schrader, it will be remembered rode in class B races at Dubuque, Ia., a few days ago, so that he needs no official notification of his being no longer a class A man. Crocker, Roth, Sanger and Zerbe were to have rode at Stevens Point yesterday, but the news of the transfer of Bingenheimer was soon spread, and they waited until last evening before leaving for Stevens Point, they expecting to also receive a notice that they had been transferred. None came, however, and at 4:30 o'clock they left for Stevens Point. There are class B races there, and if they receive notice by wire that they have been transferred from class A, they will ride in the class B races. Several days ago the four riders mentioned received notice that they were being investigated by the L. A. W. racing board, and they were furnished with blanks and requested to fill in such evidence as they deemed necessary to show that they were not deserving of the transfer. They filled out the blanks and returned them. All of them stated that they were not being paid by any bicycle company for riding a special wheel, and that they made a sufficient amount as regular employees to pay their expenses.

Class A Riders Benefited. The transfer of the riders named in Class B will by no means be a setback to racing in the state. They will have to meet faster men and will therefore score fewer victories, very likely, for the wheels they ride, but the transfer will be of benefit to Class A, as it will give riders in that class a show to win something from now on. Schrader, Crocker, Zerbe, Sanger and the others transferred, or to be transferred, took about everything in sight to be won in Class A in this vicinity, and the many Class A men, who are not Class A riders in name and Class B men in reality, will come to the front now. The best of these are Morgan S. O'Brien, W. Howie, Anton Stolz, Arthur Welltop and the Warnken brothers. There are scores of other class men and during the next year they will have plenty of opportunity to "come out" and take the places of the riders transferred. It is likely that there will be no more transfers until Mr. Gerlach arrives in Milwaukee tomorrow at least.

Anton Stolz was yesterday notified by Chairman Gideon of the L. A. W. racing board that his class A standing had been questioned. Stolz is one of the Milwaukee riders who can clearly demonstrate that he is not or ever has been in the employ of bicycle manufacturers on the racing path.

NIEMAN IS BACK AT HOME

Walked to Chicago After Shooting His Playmate at Walworth.

Will Nieman, the little German boy who took to the woods after killing a playmate near Walworth, has returned. He walked to Chicago, but on arriving there a sister convinced him that no penalty would be required, so he decided to retrace his steps and arrived home Tuesday.

The boy's story is that he was nearly frightened to death, and hardly knew where he was nor what he was doing. He roamed from one section to another, being unable to remain long in one place through fear of capture. He spent much time in cornfields, and subsisted much on green corn. He saw a few persons at a distance whom he thought he recognized, but fancied they were after him, so kept out of their sight. One man he met unexpectedly called to him to return home, as they were searching for him, and this only added to his terror, and he escaped with all speed. His idea was that if caught he would have to suffer the penalty of murder. He wanted to go home but dare not make the attempt, although he lingered in that vicinity most of the time. He passed sleepless nights and during the day time he suffered mortal agony through fear and sorrow. No one will ever be able to fully comprehend his sufferings, for he was only a timid boy fifteen years old who had always remained at home and worked hard on the farm. He had a sister in Chicago, and he at last resolved to go there which he did, going through Sharon, Woodstock and other towns, always keeping out of sight. Arriving at Chicago, his sister assured him that nothing was contemplated against him, and that his parents were half crazed at his absence, and advised him to return. This he finally concluded to do, and pursuing the same vigilance he did in going, returned to the family home during the storm Tuesday, soaked to the skin and nearly exhausted. The surprise and joy of the grief-stricken parents may well be imagined. They had offered $50 reward for his capture, and every effort was made to find him, but without avail, and they had at last given him up as dead. The boy was weak from exposure and hunger, and had been nerved up only by the excitement. When he arrived and realized that no guilt was attached to his act, he was for a time nearly overcome, but is all right now. It is safe to say he will never handle a gun again while he lives. The parents appear ten years older than when the accident occurred.

ALL-AMERICA VS. THE WORLD

Evansville Men Objects to What He Considers Partiality of Phrasing.

EDITOR GAZETTE:—In write-ups of the ball game last Tuesday the Evansville team was styled the All-American. The fact is that honors were easy so far as imported talent was concerned, each nine being made up of players from six clubs. Evansville was doubly desirous of winning at Janesville, first because of the natural desire to defeat a strong rival, second, to get it back on Edgerton for the game of August 14th when the city of Edgerton appeared with three men belonging to its regular team and defeated Evansville which played its regular members, with but three exceptions. On that day came all the sporting element of Edgerton old and young, and their name is legion, and with their good money backed, which they knew to be a sure thing and carried home much wealth; but we had considerable sand left, and a solemn vow was registered that the "All Edgertons" should find their Waterloo at Janesville September 3d. How well that vow was kept is a matter of history.

We take no offense at any of the witty things said about us. We did bring a band (and the best in Rock county); we did yell, and were sorry that lung power was limited; we did do a little mild skirt dancing, and several old men, church members, too, executed the Highland flogging with youthful agility. Put it Edgerton vs. Evansville, or if it suits better let it read "All America vs. All America."

CORDONED THE GASH AND SAVED A LIFE

COOKSVILLE FARMER NEARLY BLED TO DEATH.

Fall in Front of a Corn Cutter Lays His Leg Open, But Cool-Headed Fellow Workmen Soon Stopped The Flow With the Aid of a Rope.

The presence of mind of his fellow employees, who tied a cord about his leg, was all that saved Albert Julseth from bleeding to death.

Julseth resides on the Van Patten farm, near Cooksville. He was standing on the platform of a horse corn cutter, when his foot slipped throwing it in front of the knife. The heel cord was cut clear through to the bone and the blood began to spurt out in jets, showing that an artery had been cut. Julseth was getting faint rapidly and could not long have withstood the drain, but one of the men, with presence of mind that all people do not have, realized the situation, hurriedly looped a cord about Julseth's leg and drew it tight. That stopped the flow of blood, and Julseth was then hurried to Evansville where Dr. Smith dressed the injury.

NEWS FROM MILTON COLLEGE.

School Opens With An Attendance of 149—Full Term of College.

Milton, Sept. 6.—The cat comes back, ditto the writer and we hope the Utah trip was as pleasant for all who participated as it was to the Gazette representative. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Crandall are in Chicago this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burdick are on the sick list. Mrs. E. H. Carey who has been quite ill is now able to be out. Miss Flora Potter of White-water has been the guest of Milton of Milton relatives. Mrs. Frank Coon of Minneapolis is visiting Dr. Borden and daughter. Frank A. Root has accepted a position with the wholesale drug house of F. Dohmen & Co., Milwaukee, and will represent them in the northern part of the state. May success attend him. Mrs. W. W. Clarke left Thursday for Louisville, Ky., where she will visit friends and see the G. A. R. encampment. Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Mendenhall, of Watertown, are visiting here. Dr. Campbell and wife, of Walworth, were in town this week. Dr. Charles Armstrong and wife, of Boscel, and Mrs. H. S. Ames, of Janesville, were guests of Professor J. D. Bond and family Monday. Mrs. J. C. Plumb and children spent last week at Argyle, Ill., the former home of Mrs. Plumb. Prof. John D. Bond and family, who have been spending the summer here, returned to their home at St. Paul, Friday. The fall term of the college began Wednesday with a good attendance, many new faces being seen among those who registered. J. G. Bond leaves to-day for Virginia to resume his position as conductor on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad. Tobacco growers are busy now harvesting their crops, and fields that were planted early show a good yield. Miss Retta Crutch is at her post in the Bank of Milton and its patrons will find her a pleasant official to do business with. The public school opens with an attendance of 194. The corps of teachers is as follows: Principal, P. L. Clarke; Intermediate department, Miss Nettie Spaulding; Primary Miss Abbie Miller; Kindergarten, Miss Jessie Davis.

NIGHT BLOOMER OPENS BY DAY

Mrs. Earl Wetmore, of Fairfield, Has a Cereus of Unusual Tendrils.

Fairfield, Sept. 5.—Mrs. Earl Wetmore had a beautiful night blooming cereus in full bloom last Sunday at high noon. This is just the kind of a night plant to possess. Very pleasant surprise parties seem to be the rage now among the ladies. Over forty dames and lassies met at the home of J. Hackwell last Thursday afternoon and treated Miss Mary to a birthday surprise. The occasion was much enjoyed by all. A fine sewing chair was presented by Mrs. Hackwell and a beautiful album by the visitors. In addition to ice cream and lemonade a fine supper was served. Ladies present from abroad were: Mrs. Kemp of Fort Atkinson; Mrs. Will Lamb of Rock Prairie; Mrs. Riley and daughter Kate, and Misses Dalton from Sumnerville; Mrs. Halstien of Allens Grove and Mrs. E. Gardiner of Shopiere. Mrs. Edwin Gardiner of Shopiere, spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Monroe. D. R. Williams is making several improvements on his residence. Miss Bertha Rice of Milton, spent last week at J. C. Serl's. The severe storm last week Tuesday wrecked several windmills and destroyed many fruit and shade trees in this vicinity. There was a slight frost on low lands last Saturday morning.

H. D. M'KINNEY AND THE TROTTER

Running Horses Declared to be Foreign to Wisconsin Soil and Interests.

A plea for the Wisconsin trotter that looks very much as if written by that excellent authority, H. D. McKinney, appears in the Evening Wisconsin. It is as follows:

"Under the heading, 'Will Oust Fleming,' I noticed an article in Wednesday's Evening Wisconsin. The points taken by the writer and the reasons given why the secretary should not be interested in the State Park Jockey club, which club is the lessee of the state fair grounds, is well put. I would call the attention of the members of the Agricultural society to the singular attitude of its president and secretary in leasing its beautiful grounds for a term of eight years to a company whose principal officers are of the gambling fraternity and whose sole object is to conduct their operations on the grounds under the guise of giving running meetings."

"The running horse is not a product of the Badger state, nor of the northwest, nor is he ever likely to be. No capital is invested in him by Wisconsin breeders, he provides no employment for anyone in this section and the more which he wins does not go into circulation here."

"At a meeting of the executive board of the Wisconsin State Agricultural Society held in Madison two or three years ago the following resolution was adopted: 'Resolved, that the society give no more premiums for thoroughbred (running) horses either on the track or in the show ring,' thus doing away with prizes for the running horse. The society showed its good judgment as compared to that of other member of the equine family—the road horse, the runner is entitled to no consideration what ever."

"The roadster is raised and developed here and gives employment to many men. He represents the intelligent effort of the best classes of citizens as well as the expenditure of thousands of dollars invested in the management and care of substantial stockfarms, which are a credit to our state. Unlike the runner, his period of usefulness does not cease when he is taken from the race track, but he becomes a source of pleasure and happiness to his owner as well as an invaluable servant. From the race course to the boneyard is the way of the runner, while the trotter is of invaluable service to man in any place he is put. The breeding farms of Wisconsin give employment to a small army of men and represent an outlay of an immense sum of money. To jeopardize the interests of so important an industry for the sake of a gang of gamblers seems the height of folly, and certainly a society like the agricultural society of Wisconsin should not be a party to it."

"From the clover fields and pastures of Wisconsin have gone forth some of the world's greatest equine kings and queens, among which were the unbeaten Johnson, 2:06; Vera Capel, 2:07; Afrite, 2:08; Jay Eye See, 2:10; B. B. P., 2:12; Kate Phallamont, 2:12; Selena F., 2:13; Maggie Sherman, 2:13; Faustina, 2:14, and a host of others to add renown and luster to the breeding interests of the light harness horse in the Badger state."

"I would further call the attention of the members of the Agricultural Society to the fact that their society has been most favored by the commonwealth; that she has come down most handsomely in aid of their organization. Furthermore, I would say that the state holds a mortgage on the plant for nearly, if not quite $200,000 and accrued interest, and that the Agricultural Society's equity in that park is small indeed. That the society is not in a position to have a war between its members is a self-evident fact, and unless there be a united effort put forth the society will lose its grounds, beautiful though they be. The Agricultural Society must petition the state for more favors in the very near future and she may demand an account of the society's stewardship. Our talented secretary will have to say: 'I leased our state fair grounds to an organization known as the State Park Jockey club, of which I was a member, which is composed principally of foreign gentlemen—to run a game which the laws of many states do not countenance.'

"In conclusion I would say that what the agricultural society needs to get it out of the valley of dependency or down from the hill of poverty is a good, live secretary, one who has no conflicting interests and that can unite the entire body and make it harmonious—and above all one who will not elect himself a member of the third house of the legislature—the lobby."

There is a saying "Do others before they do you." This is sometimes slightly changed to "Do others because others have done you." If we were unfortunate enough to get an awful lot of old plunder at an awful big price because somebody done us we would of course have to do you. We only buy stuff that we know is right, not only as to quality but the price must be right, and we don't have to do anybody to get square. Brown Bros & Lincoln.

CHANGE TO BE MADE IN STATE SCHOOL

H. F. BLISS SUCCEEDS SUPT. LYNN S. PEASE.

Retiring Officer Has in Prospect a Position as Lecturer in the Law School at Madison—Decision Reached by the State Board at Its Evening Session.

The change in the superintendency of the state school for the blind was decided upon about 9 o'clock last evening. Today's Sentinel says:

"Editor H. F. Bliss, of The Janesville Gazette, was elected to succeed Lynn S. Pease as superintendent for the state school for the blind at Janesville. Superintendent Pease seems to have been giving a very good imitation of 'Joey Bagstock' in the matter of slyness. He was appointed to the position by the democratic without any training or experience to fit him for the place, and presumably because he was what Mr. Cleveland might call perniciously active in the interest of his party. He has proven an efficient officer in many respects, and his friends early began to talk in favor of his retention. There has been considerable discussion of the matter, and evident preparations to make a democratic ado if he should be retired. Without going into details of the reasons which convinced some of his friends that he could not reasonably expect to be retained, it may be stated that it was expected that he would be allowed to retire. It is now discovered that before any such conclusion had been reached, perhaps two months ago, Mr. Pease applied for a position as lecturer before the law school of the university. About a fortnight ago he was duly elected as assistant professor in the law faculty at a salary of $900 a year. He has given the board of control no notice of his intentions, nor has he advised the members as to how many positions he has in view. The natural presumption in view of all the circumstances, is that Prof. Pease was patiently waiting to be 'fired out' by the board of control from the Janesville school and go to glory as a democratic martyr to the insatiable republican appetite for office, after which he can continue to draw a salary from the state in another state institution on a faculty which four years of democratic administration made and left almost unanimously anti-republican."

Messrs. Warner and Heg of the board of control were in Janesville today and notified Supt. Pease of last night's action. The fall term at the school opens next Wednesday, and Mr. Bliss will retain his interests in THE GAZETTE although devoting none of his time to the paper.

TALK OF IRRIGATION IN ROCK

H. L. Austin Has Been Made a Delegate to the International Congress.

H. L. Austin, of Evansville, has been named by Governor Upham as delegate to the international irrigation congress at Albuquerque. He will start about the 12th of this month. congress being called to order Sept. 14. Mr. Austin is familiar with the irrigation question in the west and may tell the delegates something of the possibilities in Wisconsin during dry summers. The disposition of certain wicked Evansville people to have artificial irrigation in five cent lots will be severely denounced.

CAUGHT AN ESCAPED LUNATIC

Evansville Lockup Shelters a Maniac Supposedly from Elkhorn Asylum.

An escaped lunatic with his clothes marked "F. Umbachy," was picked up by Marshal Brink, of Evansville, yesterday. Although there was no institution mark on his clothes, it is thought that he belongs to Elkhorn. He will be held until his proper location can be established.

PRETTY AND ATTRACTIVE WOMEN.

Their Good Looks Not a Secret.

[SPECIAL TO OUR LADY READERS.] No matter to what country she belongs, or whether she be black or white, as a woman she desires to look well.

Women know the influence of beauty on men; men rarely admire a beautiful invalid, but they do admire a woman in whom is blended good features and perfect health.

There is no secret about a woman's beauty; it all lies in the care she devotes to herself, to removing from her system all poisonous impurities, and keeping at bay those fearful female diseases.

The flashing eye, elastic step, and brilliant complexion are never companions of a womb trouble; only the distressed expression and aches, pains, blues, faintness, dizziness, bearing-down feeling, etc., keep it company.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound removes female troubles promptly, and cleanses, invigorates, and consequently beautifies, the form of woman. Women, the world over, pay homage to it, and praise its discoverer. Your druggist sells more of it than all other female medicines.

Short Intervals of Peace

Only rare volte-faces to nerves weak and unstrung, but when it is braced up and soothed by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, perfect tranquillity reigns night and day throughout the nervous system. Nervousness is usually a manifestation of chronic dyspepsia, a disorder to the relief of which the Bitters is peculiarly adapted. In the general vigor begotten of complete digestion and assimilation, two functions added by this auxiliary of health, the nerves of course share. Nervous people should use it steadily, not at uncertain intervals. The bilious and constipated, and those troubled with malaria, rheumatism and kidney trouble, also derive unspeakable benefits from it. The aged and infirm find that it tends greatly to lessen their physical troubles, and persons slowly recovering strength after an exhausting illness convalesce more rapidly when it is resorted to. It is, moreover, a capital appetizer.

Children, especially infants, are soon run down with cholera infantum or "summer complaint." Don't wait to determine, but give De Witt's Colic or Cholera Cure promptly, you can rely on it. Use no other. C. D. Stevens.

Mr. Cleveland will not "take the fourth class postmasters out of politics," through an extension of the civil service rules, until he has either used them to further his third term aspirations or has abandoned those aspirations.

It is strictly as a lawyer that Campbell is running as democratic candidate for governor of Ohio, and he is not doing it on a contingent fee, either. Brice had to put up a stiff cash retainer.

Perhaps it was the bursting of Mr. Cleveland's third term bubble that people in the vicinity of Buzzard's Bay, thought was a little earthquake.

After Ben Butterworth's experience in the Breckinridge trial, it is not surprising that he should be anxious to return to political life.

Kentucky democrats regard the attempt to restrict the product of Bourbon whisky as an invasion of their political rights.

The French may be depraved and giddy, but they draw the line at bull fighting, all the same, and will not allow it.

The season has been very unfavorable to the growth of Mr. Cleveland's third-term expectations.

As a bad adviser John P. Hopkins, of Chicago, is right in it with the worst of them.

Ishpeming Strikers Determined.

Ishpeming, Mich., Sept. 6.—It is asserted that the companies will bring more laborers in the very near future, but they deem it advisable to not do so until the feeling now existing among the strikers toward the outside men has died out. The strikers assemble at every train that arrives here. They are very much opposed to yielding to new men, and say they will die before they will permit the "scabs" to fill their places. Some of the outsiders who came have given up their jobs. Men citizens of Ishpeming and Negaunee are protesting against troops being sent there, and Mayor Johnston, Sheriff Broad and Prosecuting Attorney Young are being loudly condemned for asking military protection.

Utah Democrats Want Silver.

Ogden, Utah, Sept. 6.—The territorial democratic convention last night nominated John T. Caine for governor. The platform, as adopted, is devoted mostly to territorial affairs. On the money question it says: "We hereby declare ourselves in favor of the immediate restoration of the free and unlimited coinage of silver and gold at the present legal ratio of 16 to 1, as such coinage existed prior to 1873, without waiting for the action or consent of any other nation. Gold and silver coin to be a full legal tender for all debts, public and private."

Excursion Boat Burns.

Bay City, Mich., Sept. 6.—The excursion steamer C. A. Forbes, running between here and Saginaw, caught fire on the trip down the bay yesterday afternoon and was burned to the water's edge. Several people on board had narrow escapes from the flames, and when the boat landed at the dock she was completely on fire. The Forbes is owned by W. N. Armstrong and is valued at $5,000. She is a total loss.

Came This Morning.

Linen doilies, table scarfs, splashes, tray cloths, shams, strap bags, sundry bags, fringe, covers and many other pretty articles of stamped linens. Lowell's Annex.

GOSSIP FROM THE LEAF FIELDS.

THERE is a stronger disposition on the part of dealers to purchase from the farmers, the Leaf says, but the latter are holding their tobacco at advanced prices, which the dealers do not seem disposed to pay at present. J. L. & M. F. Greene have bought 130 cases of '93 and '94; C. H. Rumrill bought 41 cs of '94 and Soverhill & Porter bought 60 cs of '93 and 40 cs of '94.

The farmers are now in the midst of the tobacco harvest, and the tobacco being put in the shed is one of the most perfect ever grown in the state. It is not so leafy as some, but is very free indeed from the ravages of the green worm, grasshoppers and hail.

The market continues in the same old rut that it has followed for some weeks past and at the same lagging pace.

The sale of leaf to manufacturers continues good.

Noticeable Drives.

We are starting in early to bring before you a hundred lines of fresh new dry goods purchased by our buyer in the eastern markets for cash on a basis full 20 per cent. below any former price. Each day now brings new stuff and we tell you frankly we shall mark all new fall goods at margins of about half what merchants usually expect to get. "A humble sixpence is better than a slow shilling." We are thoroughly in earnest about this and are so certainly doing this very thing, that it seems as if you all should know it and take advantage of it. Bort, Bailey & Co.

The Famous Marzluft Shoes

That always fit and wear like iron. These are just a few prices on them: Chocolate color, cloth top, pretty last, worth $3.75 for $2.60. Black side lace, cloth top, tokio last, very pretty, worth $3.75 for $2.90. Black kid, tokio toe, worth $3.50 for $2.75. Low shoe, brown tokio toe, worth $2.75 for $2. Plain black, late toe, also black and white, worth $2.75 at $2. All sizes and widths. Ladies' nice black button or lace, all sizes, worth $2 for $1.15. And of these shoes are bargains. Lowell's Annex.

Attention, A. O. U. W.:

At the regular meeting of Olive Branch Lodge No. 36, at Liberty hall this (Friday) evening, there will be degree work; also, matters of vital importance to the welfare of the order will come up for discussion. I therefore request every member of the A. O. U. W. to make an effort to be present at this meeting.

A NEW DYSPEPSIA CURE.

Over 6,000 People in State of Michigan Cured in 1894 by this New Preparation.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new discovery for stomach troubles, is claimed to have cured over 6,000 people in the state of Michigan alone in 1894. These tablets have become so popular with physicians and people who have any form of indigestion that they have endorsement of such physicians as Dr. Harlandson and Dr. Jennison as being the safest, most reliable remedy for sour stomach, chronic dyspepsia, gas, bloating, palpitation, headache, constipation, and in all cases where the appetite is poor or the food imperfectly digested. It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any kind of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach. They are not a secret patent medicine but composed of vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin, Golden Seal, ginger and the digestive acids. They are pleasant to take, can be carried in the pocket, and they cure because they digest the food promptly before it has time to ferment and poison the blood.

Druggists everywhere sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, full sized packages, at 50 Cents. A book on Stomach diseases and thousands of testimonials sent free by addressing The Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Appeals to America.
New York, Sept. 6.—Thomas Estrada Palma, president of the Cuban revolutionary junta, has issued an address on the recent arrest of Cubans at Penn's Grove, using the incident as a basis for a plea for recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents.

A COMMON CAUSE OF SICKNESS
IN WARM WEATHER NOTHING SO DANGEROUS AS DECAYED FOODS.
Every one knows or ought to know that decayed foods are poisonous. Boards of Health seek to prevent their sale.
We now have in mind the results which follow the decay and decomposition of foods after they have been eaten, for unless digestion occurs within a reasonable time after our meals, decomposition sets in.
If dyspepsia will stop and consider for a moment some of the symptoms of their trouble, such as disagreeable breath, eructations of gas or bad taste in the mouth, they will understand that they all must come from decaying foods that ought properly to have been absorbed into the system.
Spots before the eyes, dizziness, sleeplessness, dyspeptic headaches are but a few of the effects following the absorption into the blood of poisons, developed from decomposing and undigested food that lies in the stomach.
It was a recognition of this important fact that caused the Mount Lebanon Shakers to devote so much of their time to the preparation of a remedy for dyspepsia, and nothing is more efficient than the Digestive Cordial which they have recently placed on the market.
The importance of their invention will be appreciated when we realize what a proportion of the community are victims of some form of stomach trouble. Thousands of pale, thin people have little inclination to eat, and what they do eat causes them pain and distress.
Its action is so prompt that relief frequently follows the very first dose. It restores the appetite and increases the weight. Plumpness and strength take the place of weakness and that care-worn expression which points out the dyspeptics in every community. The local druggists are now giving away interesting descriptive pamphlets.

W. D. HASTINGS DEAD AT CARTHAGE, MO.

WELL KNOWN JANESVILLE MAN CALLED HOME.

Demise Occurred at the Home of His Daughter, Mrs. Mary H. Trott at Carthage, Missouri—Mrs. John Ludwig Called to The Final Home—Death of Mrs. M. M. Flint.

W. D. Hastings, for a long time a well known and honored resident of Janesville, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Trott, at Carthage, Mo., at 11 o'clock yesterday morning after an illness of some days' duration. The sad intelligence of his demise came to W. G. Wheelock today.

Mr. Hastings made Janesville his home for many years and was widely known throughout Rock county. He came to Janesville in 1865 and bought the J. B. Hume planing mills, located on what is now the Janesville Machine Company's plant. Later on he became interested in the McLean Woolen Mills company. He was a heavy stockholder in that concern and bent all his energies to forwarding the business of the company. Afterward he bought and conducted a large general store at Emerald Grove, but during his entire business career kept his residence in Janesville—the home now owned by J. B. Day in the Third ward. Mr. Hastings was twice married. His first wife died in Massachusetts while the second one passed away some three or four years ago. In accordance with the agreement made during their life time, Mr. Hastings carried her remains to Pittsburgh, Pa., where they were cremated. Mr. Hastings was a peculiar man, in some ways. He was inclined toward literary pursuits, and each year after the death of his wife, he wrote a poem to her memory, all of which were published in the Gazette.

Believed in the New Church.

He was a firm believer in the Swedenborgian faith, and used to preach that faith from the rostrum at the meetings of the Janesville followers of that creed. He was a quiet, unostentatious man, a good citizen, an accommodating neighbor, and a person thoroughly consistent in all that he did. Many a Janesville eye will be moistened with tears when the announcement of his demise is made. Some time ago he left Janesville and located in a small town near Carthage, Mo., where he conducted a large general store, in company with his two sons by his first wife. The eldest son was once engaged in the hardware business with E. S. Barrows in this city, but is now engaged in the same business at Longmont, Neb. The second son by his first wife, Allen Hastings, is now located in Missouri. His only daughter by his first wife, was Miss Mary Hastings, now the wife of C. W. Trott, a brother of Mrs. W. G. Wheelock. One son by his second wife, Samuel C. Hastings, whom Janesville people will remember well, survives. Mrs. Julia A. Ludwig.

Mrs. Julia A. Ludwig, widow of Joseph Ludwig and a resident of Rock county since 1865 died at 3:40 this morning. She was nearly eighty years of age and summer complaint which ended in the formation of an abscess found her too weak to resist. She was the mother of Mrs. L. Maxwell, Mrs. Lucius H. Kennedy, Mrs. M. Hyzer and Mrs. T. Huey of the town of Janesville; Mrs. L. Whitney of Whitewater, and Thomas Ludwig, of Nebraska. Two step children also survive, Mrs. Joseph Cochran, of Harrisville, Pa., and Mat. Ludwig, of San Francisco.

Funeral of Mrs. Haggart.

The funeral of Mrs. James Haggart was held from the house, 154 South Franklin street, this afternoon at 3:30 and from St. Patrick's church at 3:45 o'clock. From 10 to 12 o'clock the casket was opened and friends were given an opportunity to look on the face of her who had passed away.

The interment was made at Mount Olivet, the pall bearers being Peter Howland, Andrew Hanson, Lucius H. Lee, Leslie Currier, Charles Riker and R. C. Yeomans.

Mrs. M. M. Flint.

Mrs. M. M. Flint died early this morning at her home in the Second ward. Summer complaint caused her death and a husband and a ten days' old child are left.

ROAD CAN BE BUILT FOR $200 OR $1200

WIDE VARIATION IN ESTIMATES MAKE TROUBLE.

Six Farmers in The Town of Harmony Get Commissioners Appointed and Say they are Determined To Have a Road Put Through Whether Or No.

A mile and three quarters of dirt road ought to cost about—
"Two hundred dollars," yell six Harmony barley raisers.

"Twelve hundred," say six more.

Road commissioners, attorneys and litigants drove out in the town of Harmony today to see what the cost really would be. George Hanthorn, J. L. Bear and Milo Curtis were the commissioners. They were appointed on the plea of six freeholders who thought Harmony could afford to build a road through section 5 and give them an outlet to the main highway. Andrew Cullen, C. F. Shepard and John Dunnigan were the leaders in the movement, and the proposed road crosses their farms and those of George Chapman and Owen Spalding.

Another thing it crosses is the St. Paul road.

This is what makes all the trouble. The Harmony town board refused to build the road because the cost of the crossing was too great. Recourse was then had to the law providing for commissioners appointed by the circuit court. Messrs. Bear, Hanthorn, and Curtis were the commissioners.

As soon as they began to investigate they found that the proposed road might cross the St. Paul track in two ways. It might be elevated a few feet and a bridge built, or it might be cut down a few feet and cross on the grade.

One plan would cost $1200, the other $200.

The commissioners went over the ground this morning. Jackson & Jackson represented the town and the St. Paul company, the company being in favor of a bridge crossing.

Sutherland & Nolan were looking after the interests of the petitioners. Arguments were made by interested parties and the commissioners agreed to render a decision Saturday.

FORM A UNIVERSITY ASSOCIATION

A. C. Fish, a Former Janesville Man at the Head of the Scheme.

A. C. Fish, who used to live in Janesville back in the early sixties, is in Janesville for the purpose of organizing a university association. This is an institution founded on the broad idea that the university may come to those who cannot go to the university.

The professors of history in twelve state universities and colleges give this year a course in universal history. The lessons are issued monthly in a syllabus of a distinct period so fully set forth that the purchase of other text books is not necessary.

The monthly lessons are issued in large quarto form, illustrated with maps, drawings and engravings; the twelve numbers forming a historical volume unique in character and of great value, not only as a guide for weekly study but as a work of reference.

The institution has at its head such men as Bishop Samuel Fallows, formerly state superintendent of public instruction in Wisconsin; Hon. C. C. Bonney, LL. D., president of World's fair congress, is president of the advisory council of the Association. The union of the two institutions put into the hands of the University Association a vast number of papers by the foremost leaders of thought and research both in the old world and in the new. Mr. Fish is the state secretary for Wisconsin and will begin work at once.

POET NOW SIGHS FOR HIS WIFE.

Mrs. E. Francis Moran is Hiding and Her Husband is Disconsolate.

These poets are hard to suit. Trke E. Francis Moran.

He no more than gets rid of his wife before he begins chasing around the country to see where she has gone.

As for Mrs. Moran—
Like Uncle Remus' Tar Baby she "gets still and says nuffin."

She rebelled a few weeks ago against watering a tobacco field while the poet sat in the shade. That started a fuss and resulted in a separation. The poet seemed willing, but now his wife is gone he is disconsolate. He is pestering the neighbors to find out where she went and is roaming the woods in hopes of hearing her voice.

Complaint was made today that his remembrance was making him a nuisance, and Officer Hogan was asked to later with him.

FRANCE HELPS TO FEED US

Shipment From Bordeaux Received By a Janesville Grocery House.

So many olives that it seemed as if Janesville people need eat nothing but olives for the next six months or so, came to Tarrant & Osgood today in the original package just as they left sunny France. With the olives were mushrooms and French peas—all bearing the Janesville firm's brand.

The shipment was packed in Bordeaux and includes a year's supply. The amount of the custom duties, which were paid by a New York brokerage house, has not yet been announced.

R. C. Briggs The Well Known Traveling Man, Starts in Business for Himself.

R. C. Briggs, the well known traveling man for John S. Gould & Co., is the manager of a new wholesale grocery house. It will be located in Madison and Chicago parties are interested with him in the enterprise.

The building erected by John (alias) her as an ice house, near the Illinois Central depot at West Madison, has been leased for the purpose, and the work of reconstructing it will begin very soon. It is expected to have the business in running order by January 1.

M'LEAN'S HORSE COMES HOME

Stolen Rig Comes to Light in Freeport—Left by the Thief.

C. C. McLean has recovered the horse and buggy taken by a stranger Thursday. The man claimed to be an officer. As soon as he got the rig he headed for Freeport and left it at a livery stable saying he would return for it Sunday. He never came back and telegrams describing the rig were sent to Mr. McLean.

PASTOR TO BE PROUD OF.

Rev. Mr. Wotton Commended By the Milwaukee Sentinel for His Vigor.

Janesville has a fighting parson who recently disposed of five drunken rowdies with as much neatness and dispatch as Milwaukee's marrying parson displays in uniting Chicago lovers. This too, though he had no vision of fat fees to hasten the performance.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

RUMOR OF A CAR FERRY DENIED

The U. & N. W. Does Not Intend To Establish a Boat Service at Manitowoc.

General Superintendent Sanborn, of the Northwestern railway says: "There is no truth in the rumor that we are to establish a car ferry between Manitowoc and Ludington. Nor has the Northwestern road made any purchases of dock property in Manitowoc of late. We own property there which is used for warehouse purposes, but never has been and will not be used as a ferry landing."

TWO ACCIDENTS AT BELOIT.

A Little Girl Hurt by a Fall and a Man's Foot Squeezed.

Two Beloit people were accidentally injured yesterday. Jennie Carr six years old, fell from a second story window, to the sidewalk, sustaining injuries that may result fatally.

Henry Haase, while climbing between two cars of a train got one of his feet caught between the bumpers as the train began to back up, and received a serious injury.

TRY SOCIETY PICNIC.—The Try society of All Souls church picnicked at Spalding's lake yesterday afternoon, returning by moonlight.

AUSTIN LOWELL, father of E. W. Lowell, is somewhat better today and his recovery is expected.

MANAGER STODDARD GETS HIS DIVORCE

DECREE WAS GRANTED HIM
THIS AFTERNOON.

Farmer McCarty Was Named as The Correspondent and The Defendant Did Not Put in an Appearance—Anna E. Pasker Also Freed From Her Spouse.

William H. Stoddard, lessee and manager of the Myers Grand Opera House, was this afternoon granted a decree of divorce from his wife, Jennie Stoddard, Farmer McCarty appearing as co-respondent in the action. Judge Bennett heard the case this afternoon. Henry S. Sloan appearing for the plaintiff. The defendant made no contest.

McCarty, it will be remembered, was in the employ of Manager Stoddard for some time as the bill poster for the opera house. On the night of the 17th of May last, Mr. Stoddard found McCarty at the Stoddard home, and a lively scene in which a revolver figured, followed. McCarty succeeded in eluding the irate husband, however, and nothing more was heard of the occurrence until the divorce was granted this afternoon.

Anna E. Pasker was also granted a decree from her husband Frank E. Pasker, the grounds being desertion and non-support. Both parties reside in the town of Harmony and were married in 1872.

MRS. M. E. HARRISON DEAD.

Former Janesville Woman Passes Away at Beatrice, Nebraska.

The Beatrice, Nebraska Express announces the death of Mrs. M. E. Harrison, who formerly resided at Janesville. Mrs. Harrison had been in failing health for several weeks past, and while her death was not wholly unexpected, there was hope that her life might yet be prolonged under the skillful care of her physicians. Mrs. Harrison was 61 years of age and was one of the best known and most highly esteemed ladies of this city and county. She was the widow of Thomas H. Harrison, formerly mayor of Beatrice, whose death preceded hers ten years. She was a most estimable woman in all that the noble term of womanhood implies. Her death will be deeply and sincerely lamented in this city and wherever she is known. The funeral services were held from Christ church at 10 o'clock last Monday morning and were largely attended.

CAR OF HORSES BOUGHT CHEAP.

C. F. Brewer Says Janesville Owners Want Too High Prices.

A carload of horses were shipped to Chicago by C. F. Brewer last night. They were consigned to the Berry auction.

"We haven't been buying many horses around Janesville," said Mr. Brewer. "Farmers here want too much money. Most of these came from Green county, and I didn't pay more than $50 for any horse in the car. I've got just as nice a span of blacks as you ever saw and $85 bought them. Another team, fancy carriage horses, perfectly matched and with silver manes and tails, cost me $100."

If you want a fine shoe, latest style, good wear, any toe, hand sewed, for $3, call on Lloyd & Son.

Love, bearing many burdens through the world.
Came to the place where burdens are laid down.
Smiling she stretched her patient hands for more.
"These things were past," said one, "take now thy crown!"
Love, always humble, when most beautiful.
Drew back, as if such garbion to deplore,
To whom the rosy angel softly sighed,
"The crown of loving is to love the more."
—C. M. Packard in Youth's Companion.

THE CAR GHOST.

All draped with blue denim—the seaside cottage of my friend, Sara Pyne. She asked me to go there with her when she opened it to have it set in order for the summer. She confessed that she felt a trifle nervous at the idea of entering it alone. And I am always ready for an excursion. So much blue denim rather surprised me, because blue is not complimentary to Sarah's complexion—she always wears some shade of red, by preference. She perceived my wonder; she is very nearsighted, and therefore sees everything, by some sort of sixth sense.

"You do not like my portieres and curtains and table covers," said she. "Neither do I. But I did it to accommodate. And now he rests well in his grave, I hope."

"Whose grave, for pity's sake?"
"Mr. J. Billington Price's."
"And who is he? He doesn't sound interesting."

"Then I will tell you about him," said Sara, taking a seat directly in front of one of those curtains. "Last autumn I was leaving this place for New York, traveling on the fast express train known as the Flying Yankee. Of course I thought of the Flying Dutchman and Wagner's musical setting of the uncanny legend, and how different things are in these days of steam, etc. Then I looked out of the window at the landscape, the horizon that seemed to wheel in a great curve as the train sped. Every now and then I had an impression at the 'tail of the eye' that a man was sitting in a chair three or four numbers in front of me on the opposite side of the car. Each time that I saw this shape I looked at the chair and ascertained that it was unoccupied. But it was an odd trick of vision. I raised my lorgnette, and the chair showed emptier than before. There was nobody in it certainly. But the more I knew that it was vacant the more plainly I saw the man, always with the corner of my eye. It made me nervous."

"When passengers entered the car, I dreaded lest they might take that seat. What would happen if they should? A bag was put in the chair—that made me uncomfortable. The bag was removed at the next station. Then a baby was placed in the seat. It began to laugh as though some one had gently tickled it. There was something odd about that chair—13 was its number. When I looked away from it, the impression was strong upon me that some person sitting there was watching me."

"Really, it would not do to humor such fancies. So I touched the electric button, asked the porter to bring me a table, and taking from my bag a pack of cards proceeded to divert myself with a game of patience. I was puzzling to put a seven of spades. 'Where can it go?' I murmured to myself. A voice behind me prompted, 'Play the four of diamonds on the five, and you can do it.' I started. The only occupants of the car besides me were a bridal couple, a mother with three little children and a typical preacher of one of the strictest sects. Who had spoken? 'Play up the four, madam,' repeated the voice. I looked fearfully over my shoulder. At first I saw a bluish cloud, like cigar smoke, but inodorous. Then the vision cleared, and I saw a young man whom I knew by a subtle intuition to be the occupant, seen and not seen, of chair No. 13. Evidently he was a traveling salesman—and a ghost. Of course a drummer's ghost sounds ridiculous—they're so extremely alive! Or else you would expect a dead drummer to be particularly dead and not 'walk.' This was a most commonplace looking ghost, cordial, pushing, businesslike. At the same time his face had an expression of utter despair and horror which made him still more preposterous. Of course it is not nice to let a stranger speak to one, even on so impersonal a topic as a four of diamonds. But a ghost—there can't be any rule of etiquette about talking with a ghost! My dear, it was dreadful. That forward creature showed me how to play all the cards and then begged me to lay them out again, in order that he might give me some clever points. I was too much amazed and disturbed to speak; I could only place the cards at his suggestion. This I did so as not to appear to be listening to the empty air and be supposed to be a crazy woman. Presently the ghost spoke again and told me his story."

"Madam," he said, 'I have been riding back and forth on this car ever since Feb. 22, 189—, seven months and 11 days. All this time I have not exchanged a word with any one. For a drummer that is pretty hard, you may believe. You know the story of the Flying Dutchman? Well, that is very nearly my case. A curse is upon me and will not be removed until some kind soul—But I'm getting ahead of my text. That day there were four of us, traveling for different houses. One of the boys was in wool, one in baking powder, one in boots and shoes and myself in cotton goods. We met on the road, took seats together and fell into talking shop. Those fellows told big lies about their sales. Washington's birthday though it was. The baking powder man raised the amount of the bills of goods which he had sold better than a whole can of his stuff could have done. I admitted the straight truth, that I had not yet been able to make a sale. And then I swore—not in a light minded, chipper style of verbal trimmings, but a great, round, heaven defying oath—that I would sell a case of blue denims on that trip if it took me forever. We became dry with talk, and when the train stopped at Rivermouth we went out to have some beer. It is good there, you know—pardon me, I forgot that I was speaking to a lady. Well, we had to run to get aboard. I missed my footing, fell under the wheels, and the next thing that I knew they were holding an inquest over my remains, while I, disembodied, was sitting on a corner of the undertaker's table, wondering which of the coroner's jury was likely to want a case of blue denims."

"Then I remembered my wicked oath and understood that I was a soul doomed to wander until I could succeed in selling that bill of goods. I spoke once or twice, offering the denims under value, but nobody noticed me. Verdict: Accidental death, by negligence of deceased. Railroad corporation not to blame. Deceased got out for beer at his own risk. The other drummers took charge of the remains and wrote a beautiful letter to my relatives about my social qualities and my impressive conversation. I wish it had been less impressive that time. I might have lied about my sales, or I might have said that I hoped for better luck. But after that oath there was nothing for it. Back and forth, back and forth, on this road, in chair No. 13, to all eternity. Nobody suspects my presence. They sit on my knees—I'm playing in luck when it is a nice baby, as it was this afternoon! They pile wraps, bags, even railway literature on me. They play cards under my nose—and what duffers some of them are! You, madam, are the first person who has perceived me, and therefore I ventured to speak to you, meaning no offense. I can see that you are sorry for me. Now, if you recall the story of the Flying Dutchman, he was saved by the charity of a good woman. In fact, Senta married him. Now I'm not asking anything of that size. I see that you wear a wedding ring, and no doubt you make some man's happiness. I wasn't a marrying man myself and naturally am not a marrying ghost. And that has nothing to do with the matter anyway. But if you could—I don't suppose you would have any use for them—but if you were disposed to do a turn of good, solid Christian charity—I should be everlastingly grateful, and you may have that case of denims at $72.50. And that quality is quoted to-day at $80. Does it go, madam?"

"The speech of the poor ghost was not very eloquent, but his eyes had an intense, eager glare which was terrible. Something—pity, fear, I do not know what—compelled me. I decided to do without that white and gold evening cloak. Instead I gave $72.50 to the ghost and took from him a receipt for the sum, signed J. Billington Price. Then he smiled contentedly, thanked me with emotion and returned to chair No. 13. Several times on the journey, although I did not perceive him again, I felt dazed. When the train arrived at New York and I, with the other passengers, disembarked, it seemed to me that a strong hand passed under my elbow, steadying me down the steps. As I walked the length of the station my bag—not heavy at any time—appeared to become weightless. I believe that the parlor car ghost walked beside me carrying the bag, whose handle still remained in my other hand. Indeed once or twice I thought I felt the touch of cold fingers against mine. Since then I have no reason to suppose that the poor ghost is not at rest. I hope he is."

"But I never expected or wished for the blue denims. The next day, however, a dray belonging to a great wholesale house backed up to our door and delivered a case of denims, with a receipted bill for the same. What was I to do? I could not go about selling blue denims. I could not give them away without exciting comment. So I furnished the cottage with them, and you know the effect on my complexion. Pity me, dear! And credit me, frivolous woman as I am, with having saved a soul at the expense of my own vanity. My story is told. What do you think about it?"—Elizabeth Pullen in New York Advertiser.

Fire Apparatus in the American Colonies.
The early settlers in America paid no attention toward protecting themselves against fire, and the different colonies had grown into fair sized communities with several industries well established before any steps were taken in that direction. About the earliest mention of a definite method of fire protection was made at Salem, Mass., in 1644, when each inhabitant was ordered to be supplied with a ladder under penalty of a fine of 5 shillings. These ladders were undoubtedly made in Salem or in the immediate vicinity, and one might readily say that here began an American industry that is now carried on so extensively in many places and under a multitude of different forms. In 1648 four fire wardens were appointed in New York city. These men passed a law to fine every one whose chimney became foul or whose house was burned by his own carelessness. The money so obtained was to be used in the purchase of ladders, hooks and buckets. These were not provided, however, until some years later.

Boston also took steps in this direction, and on the first day of the twelfth month of 1653, or, by the modern method of computation, on Feb. 1, 1654, the following entry is found in the town records:
"The selectmen have power and liberty hereby to agree with Joseph Jynks for Ingins to Carry water in Case of fire if they see Cause so to do."—John G. Morse in Popular Science Monthly.

An Ole Bull Statue.
Jacob Fjelde, the Norwegian sculptor of Minneapolis, has been selected to design a statue of Ole Bull, the famous violinist. INVESTIGATE OUR BOND PLAN.

No Interest, Easy Payments, Insurance against Death

Chicago's Great Manufacturing Suburbs

60 DAILY TRAINS EACH WAY.

This property is now being sold on Easy Monthly Payments.

No Interest. $10.00 Down, and $5.00 per Month.

In addition to this we have a selling plan that is the most liberal ever offered in Chicago on First Class Real Estate.

Better Than

LIFE INSURANCE, BUILDING ASSOCIATION, SAVING'S BANK.

If after one-third of the lot is paid for and all payments due are made, if purchaser dies, this association will deed the lot, clear of all incumbrances, and without further payments, to any member of the family specified at time of purchase.

The history of all Chicago's suburban property points conclusively to the fact that this is a good investment, and will rapidly increase in value.

Why Not Invest Now?

New factories and the new electric line will surely and steadily enhance prices. This property under our plan is absolutely the safest investment on the market. No bank to break, value as sure to increase as the sun is to rise. Write or call and we will be pleased to give you any additional information.

Doubt About Insurance.

Insuring in a questionable company is like depositing in a shaky bank. Both concerns may pull through, but why take the risk? Read this list:

Royal Insurance Company	Net Surplus	$2,195,942.
Buffalo German	Net Surplus	$1,008,549.
New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company	Net Surplus	$434,639.
Traders Insurance Company	Net Surplus	$1,203,556.
Commercial Union Assurance Company	Net Surplus	$38,883.
Northwestern National Insurance Company	Net Surplus	$401,889.
Pennsylvania National Fire Insurance Company	Net Surplus	$1,290,174.

All these Companies are Represented in my Agency. The figures quoted suggest Safety, Reliability and Ample Protection. These are points worth considering.

Small Beginnings!

are never to be despised. Our store was not always the success it is now. That was because it was not known, but now our goods, their excellence and reasonable price are known everywhere. It has taken us care, judgment and every other business quality to attain this result, but now customers often leave our store regretting that their purses are not inexhaustible. Everyone should take a look at our goods, for they have attained the high tide of excellence and variety and that is the greatest mark a merchant can make.

If you would keep warm this winter don't fail to see our line of Stoves. We handle the best
